

I do not want to people to be using their cellphones on airlines. From my understanding the cellular waves can interfere with air traffic control. Safety is more important than any phone call!